

MONTHLY NEWSLETTER

AGROLÍBANO

AGROLIBANO FOUNDATION REITERATES ITS COMMITMENT TO BREASTFEEDING

The Agrolíbano Foundation unites the World Breastfeeding Week 2024 with the theme “Closing the Gap: Support for Breastfeeding for All,” reiterating its commitment to promoting exclusive breastfeeding in 18 rural communities in southern Honduras. Over the past year, 77 educational talks were held, benefiting 801 pregnant women, in addition to promoting breastfeeding in 232 nutritional monitoring sessions. Counseling and home visits reached 1,073 children.

Breastfeeding not only nourishes the body but also supports the overall development of babies and strengthens the bond between mother and child. These initiatives contribute to achieving the Sustainable Development Goals by ensuring adequate nutrition and improving the health of mothers and children by reducing infant mortality and strengthening the immune system.

AGROLÍBANO GROUP STRENGTHENS COLLABORATOR WELL-BEING WITH PHYSICAL HEALTH WORKSHOP

On August 8th, Grupo Agrolíbano held its third workshop of the Comprehensive Health and Wellness Program, as part of the Unidos Crecemos initiative, which aims to promote healthy habits. More than 50 participants attended the event led by BPE. Ricardo Villalta from UNAH, collaborators learned about the benefits of an active lifestyle and practiced flexibility, endurance, and cardio exercises. The workshop also encouraged the exchange of experiences on mindful eating and mind-body connection. This program contributes to the Sustainable Development Goals, specifically SDG 3 and SDG 8, by improving the physical and mental health of workers and fostering a more productive work environment.

See the video here

AGROLÍBANO FOUNDATION PROMOTES FOOD SECURITY AND SUSTAINABLE AGRICULTURE IN RURAL COMMUNITIES

The Agrolíbano Foundation, through its Healthy Families program, promotes sustainable food production on small family plots, where various crops such as beans, cassava, and pineapple are grown. The program provides technical advice on sustainable fertilization, including the preparation of bocashi, and encourages safe animal production through the construction of chicken coops. Additionally, it integrates agriculture into public schools, helping to diversify diets and improve school meals while educating children about sustainability.

These initiatives target several Sustainable Development Goals: SDG 2: by promoting the local production of nutritious foods, SDG 3: by promoting a balanced diet and improving family health, SDG 4: by offering practical learning about sustainability and nutrition in schools, SDG 12: by implementing environmentally friendly agricultural practices, and SDG 17: by strengthening social fabric through collaboration between the foundation, communities, and educational centers, advancing sustainable development.

See the video here

AGROLÍBANO GROUP LAUNCHES VIRTUAL WORKSHOP TO BOOST SELF-ESTEEM AND PROMOTE HEALTHY HABITS

Grupo Agrolíbano launched its 2024 virtual workshop series with the event “Boost Your Self-Esteem, Transform Your Health,” aimed at over 70 collaborators and their families to enhance their overall well-being. The workshop was facilitated by Fernanda Martínez, this activity is part of the company’s Comprehensive Health and Wellness Program. During the workshop, participants explored the relationship between self-esteem and physical and emotional health, addressing family influence and how to redesign personal identity to foster healthy habits. This program supports the Sustainable Development Goals related to mental health, gender equality, and improving quality of life in the workplace.

See the video here

MARÍA PORTOCARRERO JOINS AGROLÍBANO'S TALENT COMMITTEE AS AN EXTERNAL ADVISOR TO DRIVE STRATEGIC DEVELOPMENT

Agrolíbano has appointed María Portocarrero as an external advisor to the Talent Committee to lead the company’s Human Resources strategy from 2024 to 2030. During her first visit, María conducted over 50 interviews with senior management and facilitated workshops using Appreciative Inquiry methodology, which helped identify strengths and improve internal collaboration. Her arrival reinforces the company’s commitment to the strategic development of human talent, ensuring that organizational growth is supported by a skilled team aligned with corporate values and goals. These actions contribute to three Sustainable Development Goals: SDG 8 (promoting a productive work environment), SDG 4 (fostering continuous skill development), and SDG 5 (ensuring equity and diversity in talent development).

AGROLÍBANO FOUNDATION PROMOTES SCHOOL LEADERSHIP AND CHILDREN'S HEALTH THROUGH THE ADINAE PROGRAM

The Agrolíbano Foundation, through the Support Program for the Comprehensive Development of Children and Adolescents in the School Environment (ADINAE), is strengthening child leadership in 14 public schools using an innovative peer-learning approach. The program has trained 140 students from 4th to 6th grade on topics such as self-esteem, personal hygiene, healthy eating, and disease prevention, who now act as health facilitators for over 1,500 peers. This initiative not only promotes school health but also fosters a culture of peace from an early age, contributing to the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) related to education, peace, and cooperation.

AGROLÍBANO COLLABORATORS SUCCESSFULLY COMPLETE INTENSIVE TIG WELDING COURSE

Agrolíbano has successfully completed an intensive TIG welding course, in which 11 employees participated in 15 days of training. This expert-led program aims to enhance the team's technical skills and operational efficiency, preparing participants to face daily challenges with greater confidence and precision. This achievement reaffirms the company's commitment to excellence and continuous development, while also contributing to three Sustainable Development Goals: SDG 4 (quality education), SDG 8 (improved employability and productivity), and SDG 9 (strengthening innovation and operational capacity in industrial processes).

STRENGTHENING RURAL SAVINGS BANKS: DRIVING ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT IN RURAL COMMUNITIES

On August 31st, the Agrolíbano Foundation highlighted its efforts in economic development across 18 rural communities by strengthening 15 rural savings and credit banks. This work includes training and performance evaluation, benefiting 165 board members, over 70% of whom are women. In 2024, the Foundation will focus on improving information management, updating governing bodies, and enhancing transparency to foster community trust. These initiatives contribute to several Sustainable Development Goals by promoting financial inclusion, female leadership, local entrepreneurship, reducing the resource access gap, governance, and collaboration with other entities.

